

External categories are directions, not regions

Magnitudes only. Each set is measured on its own strongest component and PCA sign is arbitrary, so signed values are not comparable between sets. Asterisk marks $p < 0.05$.