

External categories are directions, not regions

Magnitudes only. Each set is measured on its own strongest component and PCA sign is arbitrary, so signed values are not comparable between sets.

